

THE PACKAGED GOOD Partner Charities

www.rainbowvillage.org

Rainbow Village is a community of transformation for homeless families with children from across Georgia. Most of the heads-of-households are women who have fled lives full of domestic violence and poverty. These families find refuge, recover and learn to rebuild their lives with the love and support of a safe haven surrounding them. Rainbow Village's program offers a long-term solution through support services for the entire family.

Mary Hall Freedom House is a nonprofit organization and national leader in gender-specific treatment, recovery, housing and support services to help women and women with children break the cycle of poverty, homelessness, mental health disorders, and addiction. Mary Hall Freedom House's current capacity can provide housing and services to over 200 single women and over 75 children on any given day, restoring over 500 lives annually, and has served more than 5,000 women since 1996.

They provide world-class care in more than 60 pediatric specialties and all of the specialist understand that children's medical and emotional needs are different from adults.

www.newamericanpathways.org

New American Pathways provides approximately 4,000 refugees per year with the necessary tools to rebuild their lives and achieve long-term success. Our vision is to promote safety, stability, success, and service for individual refugees and refugee families in Georgia.

www.cccprojects.org

Creating Connected Communities was formed with the mission of providing Atlanta teens with tools and resources to assist people in need and to teach them fundraising, public speaking and project management skills. The goal is that these teen volunteers will learn about community outreach and leadership while organizing and planning "Amy's Holiday Party" which brings holiday cheer to hundreds of homeless, refugee and orphaned children.

www.ourcac.org

Community Assistance Center was founded in 1987 as a way to centralize assistance to those in need. CAC has grown and is now supported by congregations of all faiths, businesses, schools, civic groups and individuals. CAC is a City of Sandy Springs agency, a Fulton County Human Services agency and a United Way agency. We provide compassionate assistance to neighbors in need by providing financial support, helping to meet basic needs and promoting self-reliance.
